Major General Charles A. Willoughby

Dear General Willoughby:

STAT
Your letter of 17 February was most welcome, and I was happy to have your comments and suggestions regarding the interview you had here on the occasion of your last visit. Thank you for the information on [redacted] We will be in touch with him on the H. matter.

I am still interested in the idea of your taking a trip to gather material for a book and I hope to have something more on that quite soon. In the meantime, if you have any new thoughts as to this proposal, I shall be glad to have them. Is there any chance that you could drop in to see me within the next week or two for a general conversation on a number of points?

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

In this connection, please note para 3 of the DCI's letter of 17 January to Willoughby, a copy of which was sent you.
